

General Terms and Conditions for Events, Workshops and Educations of The World GROOVE Movement™

Conditions

Registration requires enrollment through the website www.TheWorldGROOVEmovement.com. A confirmation email by The World GROOVE Movement™ makes registration complete and binding. Participation in an education requires the respective physical abilities. There is a lower and an upper limit of participants. The participant of an education will receive further information about the education via e-mail 7-10 days prior to the education.

Cancelation / Rebooking by you

In the event of an emergency, participants have the following options:

- Rebooking and transferring allows you to transfer your paid funds to another event of your choice within 1 year of initial event date.
Transfer options will be offered upon receipt of your written transfer request.
- A 15% Transfer/Rebooking Fee applies to every transfer/rebooking.
- You are aware that we cannot guarantee that the next available event will be in the same city as you registered and may result in additional costs on your side for travel/accommodation.
- No refund is given in the event of cancelation/non-attendance by the participant.
- The World GROOVE Movement™ will not be held responsible for any travel expenses incurred in preparation for canceled events, workshops or training, including airline tickets, accommodation, travel delays, flight cancelations or illness.

Your transfer request must be sent to support@theworldGROOVEmovement.com prior to the event. Medical transfers require documentation*

Transfer requests received during and after the event result in non-attendance and are non-refundable and non-transferable.

Non-attendance of an event or workshop

If all or part of the event or workshop is canceled and not attended by the participant, no refund is possible and the participant will not be permitted to repeat the event free of charge.

Non-attendance of an education

If all or part of an education is canceled and not attended by the participant, no refund is possible and the participant will not be permitted to repeat the education free of charge. You may for our 50% education repeat discount to attend your next education.

Cancelation by The World GROOVE Movement™

The World GROOVE Movement™ reserves the right in any circumstances to cancel an event, workshop or training, in which case we will offer an alternative date or a refund in full of all monies paid.

The World GROOVE Movement™ will not be held responsible for any travel expenses incurred in preparation for canceled events, workshops or training, including airline tickets, accommodation, travel delays, flight cancelations or illness.

Insurance

We strongly recommend you have full travel insurance in case of an emergency.

Conditions of Participation

Full attendance throughout the full education is compulsory and a requirement to be admitted to continue your journey of becoming a Facilitator.

The World GROOVE Movement™ reserves the right to cancel events and educations for good reason (e.g. low number of participants).

Registered participants are offered an optional event or the full payment is refunded.

Traveling expenses will not be reimbursed.

TWGM reserves the right to adjust locations, and times of all events.

Copyright

All trademarks are protected by copyright and it needs an explicit permission from The World GROOVE Movement™ for publication or any other use. It is forbidden to copy the training material or to pass it to anybody. In case of infringement, a contract penalty of $5000.00 USD will incur.

Pictures and Video recording

With the registration the participant agrees that pictures and/or video recordings are taken during the education by The World GROOVE Movement™ or trademark owner and these materials can be used for advertisement and published on the internet. If the participant does not agree he/she must to announce this prior to the education.

Liability

The World GROOVE Movement™ assumes no liability for any accidents, thefts or damages occurring during the event, workshop or education, on the way to the event, workshop or education or on the way home. Insurance coverage is at the participants own account.
